TO: All Commanding Officers

FROM: Department Reserve Coordinator

SUBJECT: DEPARTMENT RESERVE OFFICER OF THE YEAR - 2013

Each year, Department reserve officers volunteer thousands of hours of their personal time in the furtherance of public safety. To honor the dedicated men and women of the Reserve Corps, the Department holds an annual event to recognize their selfless dedication to public service.

While each reserve officer deserves our heartfelt thanks, there are those who merit special recognition. In order to properly recognize those reserve officers, all commanding officers are directed to assess reserve officers in their command and nominate an "Area/Divisional Reserve Officer of the Year." Commanding officers may choose as their nominee a Specialist Volunteer in lieu of a Reserve Officer. Nominations should be made on an Intradepartmental Correspondence, Form 15.02.00, addressed to the Commanding Officer, Recruit Training, Training Division. The correspondence should be sent to Mail Stop 996.

Nominations should include the following:

- The officer's length of service and a short biography;
- A detailed rationale why the concerned reserve officer merits nomination and stands out when compared to other reserve officers;
- Any other pertinent information, including attachments detailing projects/programs that the nominated reserve officer has been instrumental in developing and/or implementing; and
- A recent eight by ten inch color photograph of the concerned officer. The officer shall be photographed in a Class "A" uniform or business attire.
 - All submissions to Reserve Officer and Volunteer Unit shall include a computer disk containing the above described information. Nominations must be received no later than March 5, 2014.

Bureau commanding officers shall review Area/Divisional Reserve Officer of the Year nominees from within their chains of command and select a "Bureau Reserve Officer of the Year." Once Bureau commanding officers have made their selections, the Reserve Officer of the Year
